

Come & join us to hear inspiring Choral gems from local Choirs – for Free

*Saturday May 7 2022 1045 – 1645
St Mark's Church, in the Centre of Wimbledon*

Choirs of different sizes & ages will perform music they love in various concerts.

Coffee, tea & homemade cakes are available to buy and enjoy whilst listening.

Join us to support local choirs & celebrate the joy of singing.

On Sunday May 8 two choral workshops will take place from 2 – 6 pm:

1) Sing with Sonoro at St John's, High Path, SW19 2JY led by inspirational conductor Neil Ferris with pianist and composer Michael Higgins, and members of the acclaimed professional choir Sonoro. Tickets are £5 from www.sonoromusic.com.

2) 'Sunday Sing Out' for children aged 7 – 16+ at Merton Abbey Primary School, High Path, SW19 2JY led by pianist, educator and composer Adam Saunders and MMF's Creative Director Soo Bishop, supported by Immy Churchill and Ineza Kerschcamp from the London Vocal Project. Participants will learn 3 songs in a contemporary 'groove' style. Tickets are £5, please email: <https://mmf.org.uk/singfest22/> to book.

Both workshops will conclude with a joint informal concert at St John's Church, 5:15 pm–6:00 pm
